Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The 2nd. Baseball team of the Boy's Club played Coaticook Boy Scouts Team on Saturday afternoon. The boys played a good game but were defeated by a score of 8-4.

After the game a supper was served in the Episcopal church vestry, the food being donated by the mothers of the boys.

Mrs. Peter Dennis assisted by her mother, Mrs. C. Moffatt of Coaticook, attended to the serving of the supper. The guests and the boys had a fine time. The beans, bread and butter, cake, biscuits, apples and not forgetting coffee disappeared rapidly, accompanied by merry talk.

The Coaticook Scouts having had to leave early the proposed entertainment was cancelled. Before leaving a short address was given by Mr. Peter Dennis, after which three hearty cheers were given by both parties, the scouts climbing into their truck with the promise that we would play off the tie in the near future.

The 1st baseball team will play Dixville Town Team Saturday afternoon at 3:30. This will be a good game and all should turn out and cheer the boys.

Remember your local Y M C A is an agency for the United Y M C A Schools Correspondence Courses. Over 200 courses are available. In order to succeed you must "Be Prepared" and the only preparation in any line is knowledge. If you are interested interview P. M. Dennis, at the "Y" and talk the matter over. Information about all courses, lessons, supplies and price will be gladly given. Prices are very reasonable. "Come and see."

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Merritt report beautiful weather on Peak Island and that they are enjoying their vacation.

Mr. Wm. Bentley and Stanley Hill are attending Sherbrooke Fair today. We hope the young men will have a good time.

CLEVER HANGER DESIGN Vermont State Fair Puts Out an Artistic Piece of Advertising

White River Junction, Aug. 29.—Thruout Vermont and New Hampshire, in Post offices, barber shops, garages, hotels and, in fact, nearly every public place is seen these days the artistic hangers of the Vermont State fair, announcing in picture and text the dates of the forthcoming event.

The hanger shows the judges and starter's stand, occupied by officials, with a horse coming under the wire, the dates Oct. 3, 4, 5, and 6 above and the wording "Vermont State Fair, White River Junction," in the lower panel. In the upper distance are seen the fair buildings, tents, automobiles parked and throngs of people.

This hanger, which is a most effective design, came from the art department of the Hays Advertising Agency, Burlington, Vt.

The State Fair Commission has also had a six page herald issued in large quantities setting forth many of the attractions of the fair. These are to be distributed at the fairs that precede the State Fair.

Secretary Davis states that the cattle show this year will be exceptionally good and that breeders are delighted with the new exhibition barns for cattle that have been erected.

The fair will be continued thru Saturday, Oct. 7, this day being given over to auto races and auto polo games.

NOTICE!

I am now located in the grain building of Oscar Holway Co. and can supply you with grain of all kinds as before the fire.

A Week of Birthdays

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith was made happy last Saturday by a party given in honor of her 19th birthday. The unusual feature of this affair was the birthday cake, made by Elva herself, she being a good cook at the age of ten years.

Last Monday, August 29th., Fred Currier celebrated his fifty-third birthday by visiting his birthplace, in Charleston. His brother, Amos, who was also born there, now living in Holland, with his wife and others, accompanied Mr. Currier and family, where they gathered for a picnic dinner near the log house, part of which is still standing, their birthplace.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Findley, Mrs. Carl Norris, Irene Lougee, Edna Hadley, George Coe, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Renell attended a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lapointe in Charleston, Monday, August 29th., it being Mr. Lapointe's fifty-first birthday. About thirty five friends from Island Pond with many of their new ones, enjoyed the evening. Refreshments were served. Music and cards provided entertainment until a late hour.

Farwell Reception Tendered Mrs. May Blodgett

Friday evening, August 26, the Delta Alpha Class met at the home of Mrs. C. M. King to spend a few hours with Mrs. May Blodgett before her departure to a new home. The time passed pleasantly socially. A dainty lunch was served to about thirty friends, followed by the presenting to Mrs. Blodgett amid a few well chosen words by Mrs. Parlin, of a gold piece as token of appreciation and friendship, of the class, to which Mrs. Blodgett responded feelingly.

Mrs. Blodgett and daughter Helen left last Saturday enroute for Lynn, Mass., where they will make their home.

Cooperative Marketing of Maple Products

In order to discuss plans of organization for the producers of maple products, a state-wide mass meeting has been called for Friday, September 2, (tomorrow.) This meeting will be held at the New Sherwood Hotel, Burlington, at 1 p. m.

As a result of a meeting of the committee on marketing maple products held in Burlington on August 23, a plan of organization will be presented at the next meeting. All producers interested in the development of a sane and orderly system of marketing their maple products should be present at this meeting and voice their opinions regarding the organization of an association which will handle and market maple products as they should be marketed.

Don't forget the time and place. Be sure your community will be well represented at this important meeting. (Signed) M. J. Corliss, Sec'y., Vermont Maple Sugar Maker's Association.

Quits Vermont Position

H. O. Hutchinson, who has been supervisor of junior high school work in Vermont, has resigned his position, effective October 1st., but it is understood he would like to be relieved before that time because he is to take on the duties of superintendent of school at Elmira, N. Y., having accepted that appointment. It is also understood that the only reason for the change is $2500 increase in salary. Mr. Hutchinson took up the work of supervisor of junior high schools when Clyde Hill went back to his duties in Springfield high school.
